IMPORTANT NOTICES

Your Rights and Obligations

The Duty of Utmost Good Faith: The Insurance Contracts Act 1984 states the following: "A contract of insurance is a contract based on utmost good faith and there is implied in such a contract a provision requiring each party to it to act towards the other party, in respect of any matter arising under or in relation to it, with the utmost good faith.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter in to a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose every matter which you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk, and if so, on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you. You have the same duty to disclose such matters before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require you to disclose a matter:

- That diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- That is common knowledge;
- That the insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of business as an insurer, ought to know;
- As to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurers may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of any claim, or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurers may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Cancellation

You may cancel the policy at any time by notifying us in writing

Subject to the provisions of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, the underwriters may cancel the policy by giving you notice in writing of the date on which cancellation is to take effect. Such notice is to be delivered personally, emailed or posted by certified mail or to your address last notified to us. Proof of mailing is sufficient proof of notice.
